SADDLE BAGS FOUND.
ON the evening of Tuesday last, the 2d current, there was found in an entry in Merchant Street, a PAIR of SADDLE BAGS, almost new, secured with a strap and brass padlock, having a cut at each end of about five inches long, by which the contents apparently have been abstracted.

It is requested, that any person from whom the same may have been stolen, will apply to WILLIAM SCOT, Procurator-General of the county of Edinburgh, who will use every exertion to obtain a discovery. Edinburgh, Oct. 4, 1798.

TO LET, FURNISHED.
A HOUSE, No. 45, north side George Street, fit to accommodate a large family, with Coach-house and Stables.

The house to be seen on Tuesdays and Fridays, between the hours of twelve and three o'clock.

For particulars apply to Mr. Lamb, upholsterer.

TO BE LET,
For such number of years as may be agreed on, and entered to at Whitsunday next.

THE FARM OF NEWMILLS, in the parish of Lauder, and shire of Berwick. It lies within a mile of Lauder, on the Edinburgh road, and from the situation and quality of the land, is capable of very great improvement. The mill is most commodiously situated for a person wishing to carry on the business of the Lanthorn market, and is a fine and fertile, which will be granted to a tenant on lease, and some acres of land, which he may do to great advantage.

Offers, in writing, may be made to the proprietor at Meriton, or John Lang, Sheriff-Clerk of Selkirkshire; and John Brack, the present tenant, will show the farm and boundaries.

TO BE LET.
For the term of nineteen years, and entered to at Whitsunday 1799.

THE FARM OF MAINSIDE, with the Houses and Pertinents, lying in the Parish of Hownham and Shire of Roxburgh. This farm borders with Northumberland, is very extensive, and reputed one of the best Sheep Farms in the south of Scotland.

Proposals in writing will be received by James Home, clerk to the signet, Merchant Street, Edinburgh, betwixt and the term of Martinmas next; and such as are not accepted will be kept secret, if desired.

A FARM IN EAST LOTHIAN.
To be LET, for Nineteen Years from Whitsunday next.

THE FARM OF CRAIGIELAW, presently possessed by Mr. James Begbie, consisting of about 330 Scotch acres, in excellent condition, and agreeably situated on the sea side, six miles from Haddington.

Proposals to be made to Mess. Alexander and Colin Mackenzie, W. S. Edinburgh, or Mr. Fraser, Sheriff-Clerk of Haddington, before Martinmas next, when the proprietor intends at latest to conclude a bargain; and such offers as are not accepted will be concealed.

A FARM TO LET.
To be LET, for such number of years as can be agreed on, and entered to at Martinmas or Whitsunday next.

THE FARM OF HARRIETHALL, lying in the parish of Channellirk and county of Berwick. The farm consists of about 70 acres, all of which are arable, well adapted to Turnip Husbandry, and presently in a high state of cultivation. For particulars apply at Crook.

FARMS IN BERWICKSHIRE.
To be LET, for such number of years as may be agreed on—and entered to, the Grass at Whitsunday 1799, and the Arable land at Martinmas thereafter.

THE FARM OF BESSBOROUGH WEST MAINS, lying in the parish of Eccles, consisting of 295 acres of rich arable land, of which 100 acres have been in grass for a considerable number of years.

THE FARM OF LITTLETHANK—the South Field, consisting of 31 acres, with a running water through the middle, and the North Field, consisting of 21 acres, surrounded with stripes of planting on the north, east, and west; to which will be added, a Field of 18 acres, richly sown off with grass in 1797; also, a Field of 16 acres, which has lain in grass for eleven years; and the proprietor, if agreeable to a tenant, will further add at least more of rich old grass.

Offers may be made, or given in writing to William Riddell, Esq. W. S.; Mr. James Veitch, at Meriton; or to the proprietor at Bessborough—and such as are not accepted will be concealed, if desired.

The present tenants, or the servants at Bessborough, will show the grounds.

FARMS TO LET IN PERTSHIRE.
To be LET, for Twenty-one Years from Martinmas next.

THE FARMS OF NEWMILL OF DUPLIN, and BANKHEAD, with the Mills, and Cruiwe, and Net Fishings on the River Burn, all lying in the parish of Aberdalgie, and five miles west from Perth.

These farms contain 235 English acres.

FARMS IN ANGUS-SHIRE TO LET.
To be LET, and entered to at Martinmas first.

THE FOLLOWING FARMS OF THE ESTATE OF CARSE, viz.

I.—BANKHEAD, consisting of 100 acres arable.

II.—COTTON, of about 121 acres.

III.—QUILKAE, about 290 acres.

These farms lie in the vicinity of Forfar, and of marle. Bankhead has an excellent farm house and offices, and will be let for nineteen years certain; and after, for one or two lives.

The other two farms are already upon good lives, and will therefore be let for the endurance of them.

Mr. Greenhill at Old Montrose, by Montrose, will receive offers in grassum, or additional rents, as offers incline.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.

Edinburgh, 1st October 1798.
WILLIAM PANTON.
DANIEL MILLER.

NORTHERN SHEEP ASSOCIATION.
INTERIM, SEPT. 10, 1798.

A T Meeting of the Principal SHEEP FARMERS in the Counties of INVERNESS, ROSS, and SUTHERLAND, held here this day, in consequence of advertisement in the public newspapers, calling them together to consider of some proper and effectual measures to put a stop to, and detect the THEFTS which have been perpetrated on the Flocks of several individuals amongst them—

The Meeting unanimously made choice of DONALD MACLEOD, of Gairn, Esq. Sheriff.

Depute of Ross, to be Preses—and ALEX. MACDONELL, Writer in Inverness, to be Clerk.

Thereafter the following Resolutions were presented to the Meeting.

I. That the Members of the present Assembly, and all Sheep Farmers within the Counties of Inverness, Ross, and Sutherland, shall hereafter, for every parcel of sheep they deliver to a purchaser, or drive themselves from their Farms for sale, give or send a certificate under the hand of the owner, or his manager, stating the number and kinds of sheep whereof the parcel consists, with the marks whereby they are distinguishable, and certifying (as the fact may be) that they have been fairly sold to the person or persons in whose custody they may be, or are driving on account of the proprietor for market or otherwise, (as the case may be) and to prevent the risk of such certificate being forged, that a plain seal be engraved, conform to a plan produced, with blanks to be filled up according to circumstances, and after striking off a certain number of copies, that the Plate and Certificates be lodged with Mr. Macdonell, clerk to the Association, who will distribute them solely to the Proprietors of Sheep Farms on receipt of paying some trifling fee for indemnifying the expense of the engraving and printing.

II. That all Ferry-men, Constables, or others residing in the course the sheep drivers usually take, or can possibly take, be required to stop all sheep droves, and call for the certificates from the drivers, and if he or they can produce no certificate, that they shall be directed to bring the driver before the next Justice of the Peace or Civil Magistrate for examination, who will proceed as the case may require.

III. That application be made by this Meeting to the Gentlemen of the Counties of Inverness, Ross, and Sutherland, at their ensuing General Meetings at Michaelmas, or at the first quarter sessions of the peace within the same, stating the suspicions of theft that are entertained, and praying them to interpose their authority, by directing all Ferry-men, Constables, or others to require the production of such certificates, and upon failure to bring the party before the next Magistrate for examination; and certifying them, that if proof can be brought of their being remiss or negligent in the execution of their duty, that they shall be liable to prosecution for such neglect.

IV. That application be also made to the Sheriff Deputies of the several counties, that they do give pointed instructions to those men who are under their immediate direction, and paid by the public for pursuing and apprehending thieves and vagabonds, that they be particularly watchful over those who drive sheep through the hills, examine their certificates, and take down a memorandum in writing of such certificate, stating from whence the sheep have been driven, to what market they are bound, with their number and kinds; and shall have the accounts always ready for the inspection of any having interest.—That to indemnify those persons for their trouble, those who keep such memoranda regularly entered in a book, and can at the end of the season exhibit that account to the Association, or their clerk, shall be entitled to receive Half a Crown for every such entry, besides all expenses actually laid out in bringing those who may have no certificate, or an irregular one, before a Magistrate, and in caring for the flock stopped until the Magistrate's decision is known.

V. That Ferry-men and Constables who are put to trouble and expense in executing the business here alluded to, shall receive full indemnification for their time and trouble by applying to the Clerk of the Association, and in case of their actually stopping a parcel of sheep which shall be found to have been stolen, they shall receive a reward of Twenty Guineas from the Association if the parcel exceeds two Hundred Sheep or upwards, and so in proportion for a less parcel.

VI. That these resolutions be published four different times in each of the four Edinburgh newspapers, at the distance of a week from each publication this season, and renewed in the months of July and August next, at the expense of the Members of this Meeting, and so many copies be printed here, and posted upon the different public houses, and at the different Ferry-men's houses within the Counties as may be sufficient for that purpose, and a person or persons sent round to have that done immediately.

The Meeting entered into several separate resolutions amongst themselves for the preservation of their property, and the more speedy detection of future depredations, which they thought unnecessary to make public, but which, notwithstanding is not the less binding on them individually, and on those for whom they acted, and they give their unanimous approbation to the adoption of the above resolutions.

These minutes, consisting of this and the two preceding pages, are signed by each Member of the Meeting, for themselves and those they act for, on this last page, and by the Preses and Clerk on this and the preceding pages.

DONALD MACLEOD, Preses.
ALEX. MACDONELL, Clerk.

Extracted by me ALEX. MACDONELL, Clerk.

AS Sheep Farmers and Dealers in all sorts of Sheep, who do not chuse to join the Association, are intimated that they will notwithstanding be furnished by the said A. Macdonell, or any of the Members, with engraved Certificates, to be used by them in terms of the above resolutions, so that if any will fail to take the benefit of this intimation, and suffer any inconvenience from the resolutions being put in practice, they will have themselves to blame.

(SHEET PRICE REDUCED TO L. 8000 STERLING.)
LANDS IN PERTSHIRE.

To be SOLD by public roup, within the Trades Hall in Dundee, on Wednesday the 17th October curt, at twelve o'clock noon.

THE LANDS AND ESTATE OF LAWRISTOWN, lying in the parish of Lomforgan, and shire of Perth, about eight miles west from Dundee, and three from Polgarvie, a shipping port in the Cape of Gowrie.

The lands consist of 300 acres or thereby, of which nearly 80 are under planting, chiefly above 21 years old, in the most thriving condition.

A bed of marle, not exceeding three feet from the surface, has been lately discovered on the lands of Lawristown, which will greatly enhance their value. Besides, there is an excellent free stone quarry on the estate.

There is a good mansion-house on Lawristown, and a garden consisting of three-fourths of an acre, inclosed with high walls, covered on both sides with fruit-trees of the best kinds; and the seedings and office-houses are in good repair.

This estate commands an agreeable view of the river Tay. The lands hold of subject superiors, for payment of very trifling feu-duties.

Application may be made, for further particulars, to Thomas Mawer, writer in Dundee, trustee on the sequestrated estates of John Wemyss and Sons, merchants there, who will show the title-deeds, plan, and rental of the estate, with the articles of roup, or to James Campbell, W. S. Edinburgh.

Ebenezer McKillop, schoolmaster in Abernethy, near Lawristown, will show the premises.

PERSONAL LEGACY DUTY.

STAMP OFFICE, SEPT. 7. 1798.

WHEREAS by an Act passed on the 26th day of April, in the 35th year of the reign of his present Majesty, it is enacted, That upon every legacy specific or pecuniary, of the value of £20 or more, given by any will or testamentary instrument of any person who shall die after the passing of the said act, out of the personal estate of the person so dying, and also upon the clear value of the personal estate of every person who shall die, whether testate or intestate, and leave personal estate of the clear value of £100, after deducting debts, funeral expenses, and other charges, there shall be raised, levied, and collected, for the use of his Majesty, his heirs and successors, the several duties, after the rates and in manner therein particularly mentioned.

AND WHEREAS HIS MAJESTY'S COMMISSIONERS FOR MANAGING THE STAMP DUTIES have reason to believe, that the duties which have become payable under the said act upon legacies bequeathed, as well as upon the residue of the personal estate and effects of many persons who have died since the said 26th day of April, the day of passing the said act, have not been duly answered and paid, and proper receipts or discharges given for such legacies and personal estate, according to the said act; And the said Commissioners have also reason to believe, that the duties imposed by several other acts on legacies, and the residue of personal estate, not subject to the duties imposed by the said act of the 35th year of his Majesty's reign, have not been duly answered and paid, and proper receipts or discharges given for such legacies and personal estate, according to the said former acts, and also according to the said act of the 35th year of his Majesty's reign:—THE COMMISSIONERS THEREFORE DO HEREBY GIVE NOTICE, That proceedings will be had against all persons who shall appear to have omitted against the said acts, to recover the amount of the duties payable under the said acts respectively, together with the penalties incurred by such persons as shall appear not to have complied with the terms of the said acts. AND THE COMMISSIONERS ALSO GIVE NOTICE, That, by the said act of the 35th year of his Majesty's reign, all persons paying and receiving legacies or personal estate subject to the said duties, without receiving and allowing thereout respectively the duties payable thereon, are chargeable with the said duties as debts due to his Majesty; and both parties are respectively liable to penalties, in case of payment of such legacies without such receipt or discharge as required by the act.

THE COMMISSIONERS ALSO GIVE NOTICE, That, by an act passed in the 37th year of his Majesty's reign, it is enacted, That every person who shall administer the personal estate of any person dying after the passing of the said act, or any part thereof, without proving the will of the deceased, or taking out letters of administration of such personal estate, within six calendar months after the death of the person so dying, shall forfeit and pay the sum of £50, to be recovered as therein is mentioned, one moiety thereof to his Majesty, and the other to the person who shall sue for the same.

By order of the Commissioners, J. BRETTELL, Secretary.

LONDON GAZETTE.

PRESIDENT.

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council. This day the Right Honourable William Shaw Lord Cathcart was, by his Majesty's Commission, sworn of his Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

WHITEHALL, September 1. 1798.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Charles Macpherson, of Kingston, in the island of Jamaica, Esq. his royal licence and authority to assume and take the surname of MacNeal only, in compliance with the will of Lachlan MacNeal, late of Kingston, in the island of Jamaica, Esq. such declaration and concession being duly recorded in the College of Arms.

SEPTEMBER 29.

A private letter received from Dalmatia by the last Hamburg mail, dated on the 17th ult. states the arrival of intelligence there, of the victory obtained by Admiral Nelson over the French fleet, and gives the following particulars, viz.—Seven ships of the line taken, two run ashore, two escaped, forty transports destroyed, L'Orient, the Admiral's ship, burnt. The letter adds, that the British Admiral had appeared before Malta with his fleet and his prizes; and that the Maltese had in consequence of the victory risen on the French garrison, and had repossessed themselves of the island. This letter, we understand, was addressed to Sir Francis Baring, by a nephew of his resident in Dalmatia.

Friday morning a French flag of truce from Gravelines appeared off Dover; but the wind blowing hard, she was obliged to bear up for Ramsgate, where she landed thirty-two English prisoners. Had this vessel brought any French papers, they must have reached town. The circumstance of none having been brought strengthens the supposition that the French Directory have received intelligence which they wish to suppress as long as they can.

Friday, Government dispatches were received in town from Gibraltar, and by the same conveyance a number of private letters. The intelligence by this conveyance is by no means important. Some dispute has taken place at Tangiers, the principal port of the Emperor of Morocco, where his Majesty's sloop Corfe, Captain James, having been sent for live stock, which they obtained and paid for, it was afterwards taken away, and the officers and crew of the British man of war highly insulted.

It is reported that the homeward bound Jamaica fleet passed by Cape Nicola Mole on the 9th of August. The Jamaica, Wyllie, and another ship from Montego Bay, were taken by a privateer, and re-taken by the crews, who carried them to St. Domingo.

Four ships are said to be wrecked near Port Maria. The Maidstone frigate, with her convoy, arrived at St. Domingo on the 14th of August.

There is a report that Cape Nicola Mole has been abandoned by the British. If this is true, they must have been obliged to yield it up to a superior force, as Gen. Knox, with a reinforcement for that place, is now on his passage to the West Indies.

Three Spanish ships, bound from Malaga to Gibraltar, to obtain cargoes of tobacco for the King's manufactory at Seville, were stopped, say the French papers, by a French ship, which found on board of them English passports. The ships were taken as lawful prizes.

It was yesterday reported in the city, that the differences between France and America were about to be amicably adjusted; and that the former was to give up the island of Guadaloupe, in the West Indies, to the United States.

Lady Edward Fitzgerald is at the house of Mrs Mathias, at Hamburg. This lady was educated along with Lady Edward, by Madame Sillery, and she is married to a considerable merchant in Hamburg. She invited her young companion to take an asylum in her house.

The vintage in Portugal has proved uncommonly successful this year, and the same may be said of the wine districts in France.

General Pichegru has been removed out of town on account of his health, which is by no means re-established.

Of the companions of Pichegru, Ramelle was commander of the National Guard at Paris; Willot was a Deputy, and had commanded the troops of the line at Marseilles; Rovere was a Marquis under the old Government, was deeply implicated in some of those bloody scenes which passed at Avignon in 1791; but in 1797, became one of the most zealous and formidable opponents of the Directory, in the Council of Five Hundred.

Suard, one of the writers sentenced to transportation, on the 4th of September, has found an asylum at the house of his old friend M. Necker, at Copet, where that Ex-Minister resides, hitherto undisturbed by the storms of the Helvetic Revolution.

The Lord Chancellor of Ireland, we are told, is coming over to this country, as soon as the Irish Parliament is prorogued. The Seals are to be put in commission during his absence. It is suggested, that one of the objects of his journey is to consider of the proposition now under consideration, for an union between the two countries.

Mr Curran, the Irish Barrister, is just arrived in London. He resides for the present at Earl Moira's.

DUCHESS OF WIRTEMBERG'S BIRTH DAY. Friday being the birth-day of her Royal Highness the Duchess of Wirtemberg, their Majesties' eldest daughter, who completed the 32d year of her age, their Majesties received the compliments of the Nobility at Gloucester Lodge. Rural sports were to form a part of the celebration at Maiden Castle, Dorchester, for which the following invitation was given:

All persons, of jovial, friendly, and loyal dispositions are invited to be present at, and to partake of the under mentioned country sports, which with others to be declared upon the ground, are intended, if the weather is fine, to be exhibited at Maiden Castle, near Dorchester, this day, September 29, at eleven o'clock in honour of the birth-day of her Royal Highness the Duchess of Wirtemberg:

- No. 1. To be played for at cricket, a round of beef. Each man of the winning set to have a ribband.
- No. 2. A cheese to be rolled down the hill. Prize to whoever stops it.
- No. 3. A silver cup to be run for by ponies, the best of three heats.
- No. 4. A pound of tobacco to be grinned for.
- No. 5. A barrel of beer to be rolled down the hill. Prize to whoever stops it.
- No. 6. A Michaelmas day goose to be dived for.
- No. 7. A good hat to be cudgelled for.
- No. 8. Half a guinea for the best ass, in three heats.
- No. 9. A handsome bat, for the boy most expert in catching role dipped in treacle, and suspended by a string.
- No. 10. A leg of mutton and a gallon of porter, to the winner of a race of 100 yards, in sacks.
- No. 11. A good hat to be wrestled for.
- No. 12. Half a guinea to the rider of the ass, who wins the best of three heats, by coming in last.
- No. 13. A pig. Prize to whoever catches him by the tail.

An Umpire to be chosen in each of the above cases, to settle all circumstances relative to the same, and declare the winners; and if he give satisfaction, he will receive half a crown.

Dr Pitcairn has left town on his way to Lisbon, for the recovery of his health, which his friends know with great concern, is far from being good. He takes his passage in the next packet from Falmouth.

Yesterday, as Mr and Mrs Gray of Ealing, were coming to town in their chaise, the horses took fright at a dead horse (which was most shamefully permitted to lie in the road near the five mile stone), and breaking their reins, ran with the carriage down a bank, adjoining the road into a deep pond; but the carriage providentially not overturning, Mr and Mrs Gray were taken out unhurt.

ELECTION OF LORD MAYOR.

Saturday, a Common-Hall of the Livery of London was held at Guildhall, for the election of a Lord Mayor for the year ensuing, when the shew of hands was declared to be in favour of Mr Alderman Coombe and Sir Richard Carr Glynn, Knt.—A poll was demanded by Mr Alderman Newman, but, after a short time, was withdrawn; when Sir Richard Carr Glynn was returned by the Court of Aldermen, Lord-Mayor elected for the year ensuing. He is a junior Alderman to Coombe.

The shew of hands for Sir William Staines, though highly respectable, was certainly not equal to that for Mr Alderman Coombe, which we attribute to the circumstance not being sufficiently understood that it was necessary to return two Aldermen below Mr Alderman Coombe, to insure the election of Sir Richard Carr Glynn.

Friday, Wm. Champion and Peter Mellish, Esqrs. were sworn into the office of Sheriffs of London and Middlesex for the year ensuing; and Mr Ed. Allen, Under Sheriff for the county of Middlesex. Afterwards the Aldermen, City Officers, &c. were elegantly entertained by the Sheriffs, &c. at the London Tavern.

Extract of a letter from a Gentleman in the Colony of Dematara, to Doctor Penikard, physician to the British Forces, dated July 14. 1798.

"I have just dined in company with General Pichegru and his associates, Willot, Ramelle, De la Rue, d'Esfontville, and Aubrey. They made their escape from Cayenne to Surinam, and from thence to Dematara. They go hence with the convoy to the rendezvous of the fleet, and proceed thence to England.—Barthelemi is left sick at Paramaribo. Messengers from Cayenne arrived at Surinam, in search of them, while they were in the Governor's house; but Frederic offered no impediment to their further escape. Pichegru is reserved and silent; in appearance he more resembles a monk than a General; d'Esfontville possesses all the French garriality—his tongue knows no limits. They say they were outwitted by Barras only ten hours before they were to have played their parts; d'Esfontville upbraids the others for not following his advice, by which the opposite faction would have been guillotined. They all seem very desirous to be again in France, and still expect to be able to change the state of affairs in that nation. The present rulers they declare to be a lawless banditti, who have no view for the public good, but are only solicitous to enrich themselves."

The fate of men of genius has sometimes been singularly unfortunate. Plautus turned a mill—Terence was a slave—Boethius died in a gaol—Paulo Borghese had fourteen different trades, yet starved with all—Tasso was often distressed for 5s.—Benivoglio was refused admission into an hospital which he himself had erected—Butler's talents were not 50l. advantage to the possessor; but the name they acquired him induced an alderman to erect a monument to his memory—Cervantes and Otway died of hunger—Camdens ended his days in an hospital—and Vaugelas left his body to the surgeons, to pay his debts, as far as it would go.

THIS DAY'S POST.

LONDON—October 1.

DEFEAT OF THE FRENCH FLEET.

Dispatches are received at the Admiralty from Sir Morton Eden, at Vienna, and are said to confirm the very important intelligence of the victory obtained by Sir Horatio Nelson over the French fleet near Alexandria. Report states, that all the French ships, except two, which escaped to Malta, were either taken or destroyed.

Dispatches are also said to have been received from Sir William Hamilton, which state, that the Mutine cutter had arrived at Naples with an account of Admiral Nelson having burnt two French ships of the line, and captured seven, with all the transports.

COURIER OFFICE.

We stop the press to insert the following copy of a paper posted up at Lloyd's:

"In dispatches received from Sir Morton Eden at Vienna, dated the 15th of September, he mentions having received an official communication from the Neapolitan Charge d' Affaires, that the Mutine cutter had arrived from Admiral Nelson's fleet, on the 3d. at Naples the Captain of which declared, that the whole of the French line of battle ships were taken, burnt, or destroyed, except two.

IMPORTANT INTELLIGENCE.

By the Hamburg Mail which arrived this morning. CONSTANTINOPLE—Aug. 25.

Last night the Turkish Minister received important dispatches from the Pacha of Rhodes. They bring advice that several French frigates had arrived at that island, which had been seized by the Pacha, according to the orders lately received from the Grand Signior. The Pacha has likewise transmitted the following intelligence.

The English Admiral Nelson having appeared unexpectedly before the harbour of Alexandria, found there the French fleet, and immediately attacked it. The French Admiral's ship, on board of which Buonaparte had been, took fire, and was entirely consumed. The French frigates, which escaped into the open sea, were not aware that the Porte was inimically disposed towards France, and that hostilities had already commenced; they therefore came to anchor in the harbour of Rhodes, and were immediately confiscated.

From the Captains of these frigates the Pacha of Rhodes received the account of the destruction of the French fleet, and the principal circumstances of that event. The Porte immediately communicated this intelligence, by their interpreter, to the foreign Ministers. This day the English Minister, Sir Spencer Smith, received the confirmation of this account.

With respect to the army of Buonaparte we have received the following intelligence. It had for some time maintained a position between Rosetta and Cairo; but suddenly retreated to Damietta. In the vicinity of this town the French were attacked by an army of 20,000 Arabs, the greater part cavalry, under the command of Mustapha Bey, and two other Beys.

An obstinate battle ensued; and the Arabs say in their account, transmitted to the Pacha of Damascus, that they forced the enemy to retire with considerable loss, and that the French afterwards made a stand a few leagues from Damietta.

These accounts do not say why Buonaparte, at first, instead of advancing against the residence of the Beys, should have retreated so soon; but this is ascribed partly to the numerous cavalry that covered the city of Cairo, partly to the inundation of the Nile, which at this time is at the highest, and partly to the difficulty which the French found in obtaining provisions where so many of the roads were laid under water.

The Porte has taken great offence at the invasion of Egypt by the French, and regards it as an act of open hostility. It considers the project of Buonaparte as very degrading to its dignity, injurious to its Government, and contrary both to the claims it has to Egypt, and the relations which long existed between it and the Beys, who govern Egypt in its name.

The French Charge d'Affaires, Citizen Ruffin, and all those in employment under him, have in consequence been put under arrest, and confined to their houses.—The French, resident here, have been forbidden to wear the national cockade in the streets and public places. They had, indeed, before laid aside the cockade, from fear of being ill-treated by the populace, who are violently incensed against the French.

The French Charge d'Affaires, in consequence of an intimation from the Porte, has likewise been obliged to take down the insignia of the French Republic, which he had put over the door of his hotel. Similar orders have been sent to all the towns in which French Consuls or Vice Consuls reside, as the Porte fears attempts at revolutionary movements. Particular orders have likewise been sent to Jassy and Bucharest relative to the French Consuls there, as the Porte believes a suspicious correspondence is carried on there with some Polish malcontents.

Councils of State and conferences between the Turkish and foreign Ministers, especially those of England and Russia, who have now great influence, are held almost daily. The Austrian Intercuncio has not yet been invited to these conferences. It is certain that a grand project of alliance is now in agitation.

The utmost diligence is used in equipping our fleet for sea; but it will now find no enemy to contend with.

BASEL, September 11.

The inhabitants of the Canton of Underwalden, determined to persist in their refusal to take the constitutional oaths, entrenched themselves in a very advantageous situation near Stanz, where, on the 9th inst. they were attacked by Gen. Schauenberg with a large train of artillery.

One body of French crossed the lake and landed near Stanz, and another marched over the mountains, by which means the insurgents were surrounded. They, however, defended themselves with the most obstinate valour; but at length were obliged to give way, and all their artillery and ammunition fell into the hands of the victors. Their loss is estimated at 1500, besides wounded. The town of Stanz was almost wholly destroyed.

The following is General Schauenberg's letter.

Head Quarters, Lucerne, 23d Fructidor, 7th July, quarter past 6 P. M.

You will learn with pleasure, Citizens Directors, that victory has remained faithful to the Republicans. We have occupied the district of Stanz, after a battle which has lasted from 5 o'clock this morning until now; all that affects me is, that this day has cost much blood; but we had to contend with rebels, whom it was necessary to reduce. Health and consideration, RASTADT, Sept. 12.

The Deputation of the Empire, on the 10th inst. its conclusion in answer to the last French note, which is the fame in substance that it was expected to be. Deputation consents to cede the island Peterfave, requires the restoration of Kehl and Castel. This conclusion was on the 11th ratified and delivered as a note to the French Ministers by the Austrian Plenipotentiary.—The latter, however, still declares, that Austria never consent to any demand on the right bank of Rhine, nor accede to any such concession by the Deputation.

The French have at Cherbourg 17 gun-brigs, 18 corvettes, and one corvette, ready for sea, besides several various descriptions in preparation. Almost every the greater number of the prepared armament masts within the cones; but, though the Camilla of 20 has been the only vessel we have off that port, they not, strange as it must appear, ventured to attack. They have of late frequently exchanged shot with but never out of reach of their batteries.

The French force at Havre is hourly increasing, will doubtless be speedily much augmented in consequence of the arrival of a convoy yesterday week, comprised five ships, said to be laden with naval stores, a circumstance, considering the number of ships expected to block up that port, equally subject for impenitent regret. It can only be accounted for by the senior officer on that station being less acquainted with the coast than his gallant predecessor.

CORN EXCHANGE, OCT. 1.

We had a pretty large supply of Wheat to-day; but there is no declension in the price of Flour, the mealmen off the best samples at full as high prices as last week.

A good deal of Barley appeared; however, as the market now seem resolved to begin work, it sold at a price higher, but Malt is very dull indeed.

Contrary winds prevailing, we had rather a short supply of Oats; and, the consumers being rather bare of stock, the heavy parcels are near 1s. per quarter dearer since last day.

ESTATE OF GRANGE.

THE SALE of the ESTATE of GRANGE, in the county of Linlithgow, is, at the desire of intending purchasers POSTPONED to the 7th day of November. Edinburgh, Oct. 1. 1798.

ESSENCE OF PEPPERMINT.

THE very flattering and strong testimonials which J. PERMER has received in favour of his ESSENCE of PEPPERMINT, from almost every part of the world, demonstrate the necessity of his saying anything in favour of its virtuous effects, was it not from the complaints so strongly and frequently urged from different parts, of imposture by nations and individual counterfeits. The genuine essence is an elegant preparation, fragrant in itself, administering oftentimes the most soothing and instantaneous relief in gouty and cholicky pains in the stomach and bowels, reviving the spirits, restoring the appetite, and producing many other salutary effects, more particularly pressed in the bills. Out of respect to the Public, and as justice to himself, each bottle is signed by his own hand, and sold by his appointment only.

EDINBURGH—OCTOBER 4.

[FROM OUR LONDON CORRESPONDENT.]

LONDON, OCTOBER 1.

A friend belonging to the Admiralty has favoured me with the following authentic intelligence:—FROM SIR MORTON EDEN.

VIENNA, SEPT. 15. 1798.

A messenger arrived this day from Prince Belmont, at Trieste, with a letter for the Neapolitan Charge d'Affaires at this Court, dated the 11th instant, informing him, the Prince had received, by a messenger, a dispatch from Naples, dated the 3d instant, stating that on that day his Majesty's cutter La Mutine, Captain CAPRI, had arrived there with intelligence from Admiral NELSON, that, on the 8th of last month, he had attacked the French fleet off Rosetta, and that he had destroyed or taken the whole except two ships; that BUONAPARTE's dispatches to the Directory had been taken. Prince BELMONT finishes his letter by telling it to Baron THUGUT, Count RAGNATZ, &c. I repeat to you that the news is authentic, and that Sir MORTON EDEN.

The news from Ireland is one continued tale of woe.—Murder, in all its horrible shapes, fills the history every day.—Open rebellion, it is true, is now suppressed; but private assassination, which is still more dreadful, has taken its place. No family is safe unless sheltered in a great town by a strong body of militia. The imagination cannot paint a picture more awfully distressing.

SOUND INTELLIGENCE.

DOWNWARDS.

Sept. 16 Marquis of Lorn, White, from St. Petersburg to London, sundries.

17 Jenny, Thomson, from Memel for Fishrow, sundries. Thetis, Rutherford, from St. Petersburg for London. Advena, Sandell, from do. for do. sundries. Eliza, Stewart, from do. for Leith, sundries. Columbus, Swates, from do. for Liverpool, tallow. Mary, Gorrie, from do. for Dundee, sundries. John and Nancy, Barry, from do. for do. flax. Margaret, Miller, from Dantzick for Kincardine, flax. William and Henry, Swinney, from Memel for Wick, timber.

Christian and Mary, Stebbie, from Dantzick for Perth. 18 Brothers, Key, from St. Petersburg for Dundee, flax. Diamond, Keller, from do. for do. flax.

Jane, Taylor, from do. for do. flax.

The George of Kirkcaldy, Beveridge, is arrived in the Sound from Gottenburg to join convoy.

Yesterday, the Busy brig cutter arrived from the Humber, with a fleet of about 40 sail, and carries home the homeward bound trade, consisting of about 90 sail.

LARSEN and a Mr ANDERSON, who resided within a few miles of the former place.

On Wednesday night last, three brothers of the name of BRYAN, respectable farmers, near Roundwood in the county of Wicklow, were set upon by a band of ruffians, and deprived of life with attending circumstances of great barbarity. Can nothing be done to put an end to this demoniac system which afflicts and disgraces the country?—or is Ireland, one way or other, ever fated to be a scene of terror and personal insecurity. Even the terrible experiment of open warfare is more tolerable to the country than the hell-born fiend-like war of assassination, which if longer carried on will confirm to the Irish name an indelible disgrace and abhorrence all over the world.—Dub. Ev. Post.

According to the new bill for regulating licenses, a penalty of 20l. may be levied on any parish or townland where an unlicensed retailer of spirits shall be found—all persons before obtaining a license shall swear that they hold no employment, nor in any way ever belonged to a society of United Irishmen—the other principal features of the bill are a penalty of 50l. to which a magistrate is subject who shall refuse or neglect to carry the act into execution; and the licensees are raised from 20l. to 30l. for which the licensed person is permitted to sell any liquor, but cider.

On Wednesday evening, so early as seven o'clock, a banditti entered the house of Alderman TROLOCK, at Simon's Court, and, after locking the female part of the family in a lower apartment, proceeded up stairs into the Alderman's chamber, and, having obliged him to give them the keys of his desk, took therefrom cash and bank notes, as we understand, to the amount of 80l. and upwards.

WAR-OFFICE, DUBLIN-CASTLE, Sept. 28. 1798.
4th Regiment of Dragoon Guards—Captain Denis Pack, from the 5th dragoon guards, to be Major, by purchase, vice Packham, removed to the 23d dragoons.
13th Ditto—Ensign George Thornhill to be Lieutenant, by purchase, vice Edwards, resigned. R. B. Hancock to be Ensign, by purchase, vice Johnston, promoted.

PRINCES OF WALES (or Aberdeenshire)— Captain Thomas Purfoy, from the Tipperary militia, to be Lieutenant-Colonel, vice Macneil, he having obtained letters of service to raise a corps. Lieutenant John Wilson to be Captain, vice Burns, promoted. Ensign John Browne to be Lieutenant, vice Bunbury, resigned. George Lamont to be Ensign. Ensign James Craigie to be Lieutenant, vice Thurstons, resigned. Charles Lamont to be Ensign. Ensign James Martin to be Lieutenant, vice Mackinnon, resigned. H. Lawson to be Ensign, vice Bissett, resigned.
1st Bat. Cavalry Legion—Ensign G. Mackenzie to be Lieutenant, vice Macneil, promoted in the 4th battalion.
3d Bat. Rothay and Cairn—Major Duncan Darroch, from the half-pay of the late 104th regiment, to be Major, vice Molyneux, exchanged.

CORK, Sept. 23.
An express has arrived from Bantry, mentioning that an English frigate arrived there, the Captain of which states, that he had defeated at sea a French fleet, consisting of two ships of the line, and seven frigates, steering to the westward. He said, he had left a loop of war to watch their motions, while he came with intelligence respecting them to Admiral Kingmill.

SEPTEMBER 26.
This day DENIS CASEY was executed at Galows-green pursuant to his sentence, for conspiring to murder Doctor HARDING our present worthy Sheriff.—He died a melancholy instance of youthful depravity, he was under 20 years of age.

SLIGO, Sept. 24.
The army on their march to Ballina against the rebels, had a severe skirmish with a party of them they came up with on the road, several of whom they killed, and took from them two pieces of cannon. We have just received intelligence here of the annihilation given to the insurgents at Ballina. Our army surrounded them from Scumore to Ballina, and from that to Killala. There were 3000 of them laid dead in the attack.

The King cutter of 14 guns, full of armed men, went from this place, to prevent any escape of the insurgents by sea, and which had the desired effect. In the march of the army, they burnt all houses where pikes were found, or property plundered from loyal subjects. Among our forces there were three men killed; Mr Todd, a merchant of this town, has fallen in the affair, and one of the Sligo cavalry is wounded in the neck.

There is to be exposed to sale by public roup, within John's Coffeehouse in Edinburgh, upon Saturday the 17th day of November next, betwixt the hours of one and two afternoon,
THE LANDS OF CROSSFORD, lying within the parish of Lesmahago, and shire of Lanark, consisting of 98 acres 2 roods 3 fells, pleasantly situated on the banks of the Clyde and Nethan, within three miles of Lanark, eight of Hamilton, and eighteen of Glasgow, with the privilege of the ferry of Crossford. There are abundance of freestone, limestone, and coal in the lands, and a considerable quantity of natural wood upon them.
The lands are at present only rented at about 60l. independent of the coal, woods, freestone, and limestone, but they have not been augmented for near 30 years, and are all out of lease. They are held of the Crown, for the yearly payment of 5l. Scots, and of 5l. Scots to the minister of Lesmahago, and valued in the Cess-books at 100l. Scots.
The new road from Glasgow to Lanark, runs through them. There are pleasant situations for building, and many offers have been made for leasing out the land.
The greatest part of the price will be allowed to remain in the hands of the purchaser upon proper security.
A plan and measurement of the lands are to be seen in the hands of David Hutchison, Sheriff-substitute of Renfrewshire, and William Hutchison, writer in Edinburgh, the latter of whom will show the title-deeds; and the former is authorised to sell by private bargain.

LANDS IN DUMFRIES-SHIRE AND GALLOWAY.
To be perpetually sold by public roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffee House, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 28th day of November next, betwixt the hours of two and four o'clock afternoon—
I. THE ESTATE OF KIRKMICHAEL, lying in the parish of Kirkcubright and county of Dumfries, of nearly 1200l. of present yearly rent.
This estate is very extensive, and contains natural woods and Plantations of great value, the Farm Houses are mostly new, and the Farms being capable of much improvement must yield considerable rises of rent on the expiry of the present leases.
It is held of the Crown, affords a freehold qualification, and possesses many other advantages.
II. The Lands of GLENKILNS, BLACKCLEUGH, and LAMPHTITH, in the parish of Kirkcubright and county of Dumfries, forming one of the best Stone Farms in that country, presently rented at 240l. per annum.
III. The Undivided Half of the Lands of CRAIGSHIELD and HOLLS, of which the present rent is about 200l. per annum, subject to the liferent of a gentleman, nearly 70 years of age.
All these Lands lie contiguous, from 8 to 10 miles from the town of Dumfries, and will be sold together or separately, as purchasers incline.
IV. The Lands of WOLF-GILL, HERRIES PARKS, and CARTHAGENA, in the parish of Dumfries, and within half a mile of the town, beautifully situated, and paying 240l. of yearly rent.
V. The Lands of AUCHENGIBBERT, in the parish of Urr, and stewartry of Kirkcubright, about nine miles from Dumfries, presently rented at 18l.
There are thriving young Plantations on these Lands, and as the new turnpike road passes through them, their value must be greatly increased.
VI. The Lands of KEMPLETON, with the Mills lying in the parish of Twynholm and stewartry of Kirkcubright, within a mile of the town of Kirkcubright, having a commodious harbour on the Lands themselves, at which vessels of 100 tons may unload.
They afford a freehold qualification in the stewartry, the Mills were lately erected, and are well situated both for home and export trade.
The present yearly rent of the estate is only 250l. but the current leases very soon expire, and offers have already been made of much higher rents.
For further particulars, apply to Wm. Bushby, Esq. Great Cumberland Place, London; John Bushby, sheriff clerk of Dumfries; or Alexander Young, writer to the signet, in whose hands may be seen the articles of roup, title deeds, and leases.

HOUSE AND FARMS IN MID LOTHIAN TO LET
To be LET and entered into at Martindale next, for what term of years shall be agreed upon, by public roup, the FARM OF WEST LANTON adjoining, Belfield contains 65½ Scots acres, is divided into eight inclosures, all arable land, except a few strips of old planting. The farm of West Lanton contains 63½ Scots acres, of arable land, including about 14 acres of old planting. This farm is also inclosed and subdivided into five inclosures. These farms are situated 12 miles west from Edinburgh, and about half a mile south of the great road by Mid Calder to Glasgow, and within 14 mile of Raw-camp Lime-works. They will be let together or separately as may be afterwards agreed upon.

Offers in writing may be given in to Hugh Bremner, accountant, Edinburgh, or to McKenzie Stobbie, at Dalnalyss, who will shew the farms and inform as to particulars.

LANDS IN THE COUNTY OF FORFAR.
To be SOLD by public roup, on Saturday the 3d day of November 1798, within the New Inn of Forfar, at one o'clock afternoon,
THE LANDS OF KINCRIEIGH, and those Parts adjacent thereto together or in the following Lots, as purchasers may incline.

Lot I.—Being a Part of the Lands of KINCALDRUM, with the Mansion-house and Garden, consisting of 134 Scots acres of arable land, inclosed partly with stone dykes and partly with good thriving hedges. The whole enclosures of these lands are well watered, and they are out of loans, so that a purchaser will get immediate access.

Lot II.—Being Part of the Lands of KINCRIEIGH, consisting of 189 Scots acres, all arable, and capable of great improvement. The present leases terminate with crop 1799. There is a good stone quarry in the ground for inclosing or building houses; and as the lands for some length lie along the turnpike road leading from Forfar to Dundee, they might be fenced out to manufacturers to great advantage.

Lot III.—Comprehends the Remainder of the Lands of KINCRIEIGH and GORALS, and consists of 331 Scots acres. The present leases of these lands expire with crop 1799. The whole of these lands are contiguous to one another, and are within about seven miles of the town of Dundee, and five of the town of Forfar, to both which towns there is a commodious and easy access by an excellent turnpike road, lately made.

There will be attached to the above lots, if sold together, or to one of the above lots, if sold separately, a SUPERIORITY affording a freehold qualification in the county, if purchasers incline.

If the lands do not sell in whole, or in the lots above mentioned, then part of them lying along the high road leading from Forfar to Dundee will be exposed to sale in the following ten lots—viz.

Three of these Lots to consist of about thirteen acres each, and the other seven Lots to consist of from six to seven acres each. If these ten small lots are sold, they are to be held for the present proprietor, for payment of a trifling duty—viz. They are all remarkably well watered, and their situation is peculiarly desirable for manufacturers, trades people, and others, being close on the side of the high road.

Application for further particulars may be made to Mr Bower, the proprietor, at his house of Kinnelton; to Mr James Wyllie, writer in Forfar, who is in possession of a plan of the three large lots; or to Messrs. Fotheringham and Pearson, writers to the signet, in whose hands the title-deeds are.—Any person desirous to purchase the whole, or any of the lots by private bargain between and the day of sale, may also apply as above.

ROSEBANK, AND OTHER LANDS, NEAR GLASGOW.
To be sold in the course of the ensuing winter, By public sale, the time and place of which will be duly notified.

LOT I. THE LANDS OF ROSEBANK AND OTHERS, lying contiguous, in the parishes of Rutherglen and Cambuslang, and county of Lanark, distant from Glasgow about four miles; the rental whereof is about 330l. Sterling per annum.
There is a very neat House and an excellent Court of Offices on the Lands in good repair. The place is well kept, the Gardens in complete order; and the Timber, the greatest part of which is full grown, is reckoned worth 500l.

The House stands on the south bank of Clyde, and on a hill of the river, the view of which, the city of Glasgow, and its rich adjoining country, is uncommonly beautiful.
Possession of the House, &c. and of about 30 acres of land, enclosed by a high stone wall on the south, and bounded by the river Clyde on the north, may be obtained on a short notice.

The Grounds afford many charming situations for building, as the river, in its various windings, is commanded from almost every point of them, and will be divided into such Lots as purchasers may incline.

LOT II. THE LANDS OF FLEMINGTON, lying a mile and a half north of the city of Glasgow, and let for 90l. per annum.

LOT III. THE LANDS OF SPRINGVALE, lying contiguous to Lot 2d. being separated from it only by the road leading from Glasgow to Kirkintilloch, also let for 90l. per annum.

On Lot 2d. there is a Steading of Farm Houses, and a rivulet of water intersects the grounds.

On Lot 3d. there is a House and Offices, which cost in building from 700l. to 800l. and might be rendered very commodious either for one or two families.

Part of the price of these Lots will be allowed to remain in the purchaser's hands, on proper security; and any person wishing to be informed as to further particulars, or to conclude a private bargain, may apply to John Dunlop, Kinnelton, near Borrowstoness; or to James Davidson, writer to the signet, in whose hands are the title deeds.

John Reid, gardener at Rosebank, will shew Lot 1st, and the tenant in Springvale the other Lots.

LANDS FOR SALE IN ARGYLLSHIRE.
To be SOLD by warrant of the Court of Session, by public roup, in the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Thursday 29th November next, at one o'clock afternoon,
THE LANDS OF LOCHBUI, in Argyllshire, holding the Crown, at least so much thereof as shall be necessary for paying the debts of the late John McLaine, Esq. and his deceased Captain Archibald McLaine, formerly of Lochbui. These lands are situated in the Island of Mull, and shire of Argyll. They consist of upwards of 44,000 Scots acres, and will be exposed in the following lots:

Lot I.—Tapul, Coliemore, Scolul, Tiroran, Knockry, Osmus, and Shiconnell, with the Mill thereof.

Lot II.—Collachelly, Kilbeg, Gruline, Torloch, and Geddle, Benalla, comprehending Leadery, Bradallach, Beldidugh, Tomlea, and Corrygarran.

Lot III.—Scalliste, Garmony, Lidderk, Fishish, Balmoneoch, Corryhenoch, with the Mill thereof, Letter, Peryngown, Corrachie, Rohill, and Derryningale.

Lot IV.—Moy, Cameron, Glenbyre, and Innigart, Derranulen, and Rosal, Benind, Kinnlochpeive, Laggan, Descap, and Glendibdel, Barichendroman, Garmonyroch, Drumnyroch, Crogan, and Iridale.

N.B.—As much Superiority will be added to each of the above lots as will afford a freehold qualification.

On lot 4th, besides the Castle of Moy, there is a large convenient Mansion-house lately built, with suitable offices, and a well stocked garden, most delightfully situated at the extremity of the bay of Lochbui.

Lots 2 and 3 will be exposed either in one lot or in separate lots, as purchasers may appear.

As the most of this estate is at present out of lease, and very improvable, a great addition of rent may be expected upon granting leases. The extent of the arable and improvable land is distinctly pointed out by a late survey of the estate. The whole of it is pleasantly situated, has many excellent situations for mansion-houses, and abounds with game and fishing of all kinds. And there are natural woods upon the property, and planted wood at Moy and Scallisdale, at which last mentioned place there is likewise a good Garden, containing fruit trees.

For particulars application may be made to Lieutenant-Colonel McLaine at Moy, by Achnacraig, or to Mr Campbell, W. S. St. James's Square, who will shew the plans and surveys of the estate, give any other information that may be necessary.
